

Checklist for Student Visa Applications - India and Nepal

Form 157A Application to visit Australia for a student (temporary) visa
Visa Application Charge
Form 956 Appointment Of A Migration Agent Or Exempt Agent Or Other Authorised Recipient. Please fill in this form if you want a migration agent or other authorised person to receive communications about your application with the department.
Electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE) or Completed Acceptance Advice for Secondary Exchange Students (AASES) form.
Original passport (NB whilst a copy is acceptable to lodge a valid application failure to provide an original passport at the time of lodgement may delay processing)
Recent passport photo - head and shoulders only, plain background
If applicable, evidence of the relationship between yourself and your spouse and children (including those who are not joining you in Australia). Example: - Certified copies or notarised copies of birth - Marriage certificate.
If married, evidence that the marriage is genuine and ongoing: Examples: - selection of wedding photos and other photos - affidavits from yourself and third parties - evidence of joint ownership of assets/finances
Financial documents, including: - evidence of funds held, loan and/or scholarship - evidence of income
Copies of academic documents: Examples: -certificates, diplomas, degrees and - academic transcripts
English proficiency (for subclasses:572, 573 & 575): - IELTS, TOFEL, CAE or Pearson certificate or - If applicable evidence of sponsorship by your Government or the Australian Government
For students under 18 years, evidence of welfare and consent arrangements (see http://www.immi.gov.au/students/students/chooser/index.htm and follow the links to the relevant checklist)

Note: The above is guide to the documents you should provide with your student visa application.

For full details regarding visa requirements and required documentation please consult the following websites: www.india.embassy.gov.au and www.immi.gov.au

We do not require you to submit original documents other than your passport. Please do not provide original documents unless these have been specifically requested.